The Associated Students of The University of Montana
Resolution Regarding Transportation and the COT West Campus

March 23, 2011

Senate Bill SB32-10/11

Authored by: Miranda Carson, ASUM Senator and Travis Suzuki, ASUM Senator

Sponsored by: Katie Spika, ASUM Senator, and Austin James, ASUM Senator

Whereas the majority of students at the COT West Campus do not utilize the services of ASUM Transportation;

Whereas the students at the COT West Campus are unable to access the West Campus via the services and routes currently provided by ASUM Transportation;

Whereas the students at the COT West Campus do receive services from the Mountain Line transportation service ~~to due~~ which is influenced by the lobbying by the ASUM transportation Office and Board;

Whereas the students at the COT West Campus can elect to opt-out of the campus recreation ~~and athletic fees~~;

Whereas the students at the COT West Campus are equally important as students at the Mountain Campus;

Whereas ASUM and the Transportation Office have a close working relationship;

Whereas it is not ~~fair~~ appropriate to charge the students at the West Campus COT a fee for transportation services they do not utilize;

Therefore, Let It Be Resolved that ASUM urges ASUM Transportation to utilize the survey of the COT West Campus to develop an effective method to serve the students' interest.

Therefore Let It Be Further Resolved that the ASUM Senate urges ASUM Transportation to ensure a solution for the transportation in the coming academic year, to ensure the students at the COT West Campus obtain benefits from the fee.
